OVERVIEW

Jordan & Oman is a remarkable 22-day journey to two culturally and architecturally rich desert nations sitting at opposite ends of the Arabian Peninsula. Join us as we follow in the footsteps of prophets and kings on a journey of discovery to these ancient kingdoms of the desert!

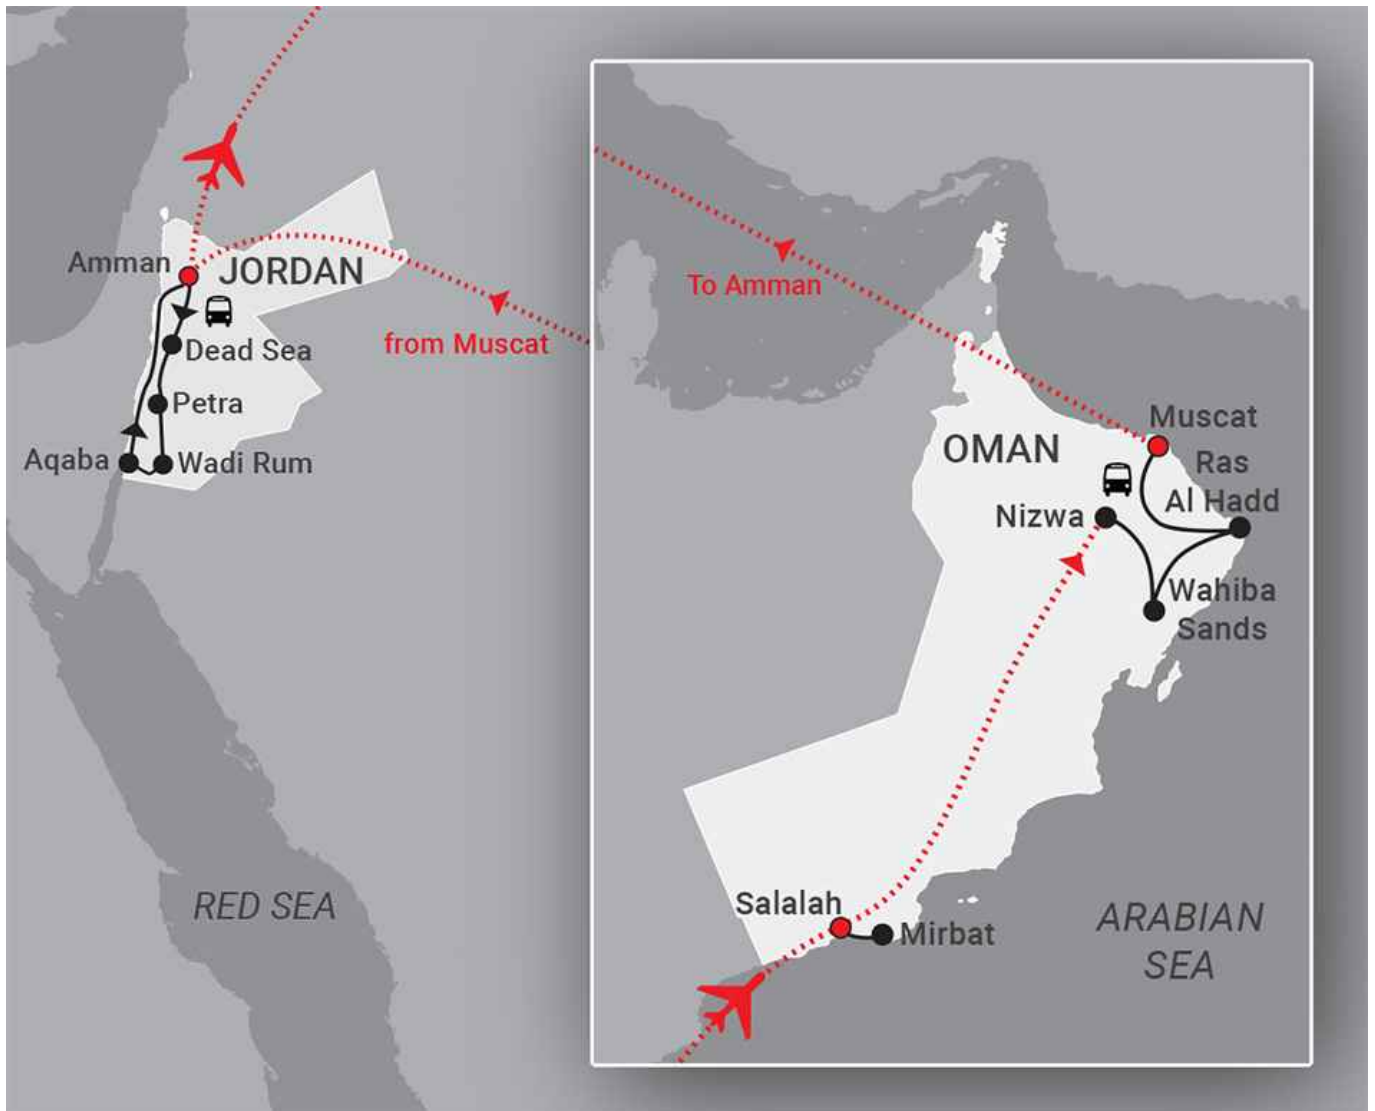

Our tour begins in the Sultanate of Oman, a country of breathtaking natural beauty, interwoven with ancient history and legends. We spend three nights in the gorgeously lush city of Salalah before flying north to Nizwa and continuing by road to Wahiba Sands, the spectacular 'Grand Canyon' of Oman, the coastal town of Ras Al Hadd, and the exciting Omani capital, Muscat. We then fly to the Jordanian capital, Amman, from where we visit the ancient Greco-Roman ruins of Jerash. Moving south we arrive at the lowest point on earth – the Dead Sea – a vast natural spa of salt and minerals shimmering in the shadow of Mt Nebo. We then continue on to the lost caravan city of Petra – one of the world's most visually stunning archaeological sites. Leaving Petra we head south to the great desert of Lawrence of Arabia, Wadi Rum, where we enjoy an overnight stay in a luxury tented Bedouin camp, before continuing on to Aqaba, the final destination on our tour. These ancient desert kingdoms seamlessly blend traditional and modern culture that is the last real essence of Arabia!

Salalah is the second largest city in Oman and is the capital of the southern province of Dhofar. Known as the 'perfume capital of Arabia', Salalah has many attractions, both natural and man-made. Outside of the city herds of cattle graze on lush green pastures that are lined with magnificent frankincense trees from which the aromatic resin is used in the production of oils and incense. Today we explore the Heritage Souk, where we find different types of Omani crafts and incense burners, while the New Souk is a great example of a modern Arabian market. Passing typical Dhofari houses with caravan windows and doors, we reach the Old Souk which has a vast array of Frankincense, Dhofari traditional clothes and cosmetics.

24/03/2027 Salalah – Mirbat – Salalah (BLD)

Today we drive east of Salalah to the sardine-producing village of Taqa, renowned for its 19th century castle, and not far from the ruined palace of the Queen of Sheba. We take the coastal road to Mirbat, formerly an important breeding centre for Arabian horses, and centre of the slave trade. Here, at the foot of the Qara Mountains, the streets are lined with old merchant houses, notable for their classic Yemeni style architecture of carved doors and windows. This is the home of the Jebali people who own the huge camel and cattle herds that now surround us. Late afternoon we return to Salalah.

After breakfast we transfer to the airport for the flight to Muscat.

own and equally spectacular version of its American counterpart. Late afternoon we return to Nizwa.

28/03/2027 Nizwa – Wahiba (BLD)

Leaving Nizwa, we drive south east and soon begin to cross the incredibly barren sands that are actually home to a phenomenal amount of life and an exotic diversity of fauna including dragonflies, wolf, two species of Ruppell's fox, wild cats, and white-tailed mongooses. Some 115 species of birds have also been recorded here including the elusive Arabian and Sand Gazelles. Like a great ocean of sand, the endless dunes are an alluring landscape of changing contours and colours. Red at the base and honey coloured on the top, the dunes can rise to 200 metres in height and are home to the Bedu nomadic tribesmen who roam the land with goats and camels. An exhilarating drive across the dunes brings us to our desert camp in the Wahiba Sands where we enjoy a spectacular sunset as we prepare for a night under the desert sky.

This morning we leave the resort for the short walk to the turtle nesting ground. This gives us the opportunity to see the turtles in daylight as they make their way back to the ocean. We then begin our drive north to the port of Sur. Once a major trading port with East Africa, Sur embodies the seafaring origins of Oman. We visit the shipbuilding yard where traditional dhow boats, used throughout the 19th century, are still built today. We continue our journey north along the rugged coastline before turning inland and arriving into Muscat late afternoon.

Muscat

31/03/2027 Muscat (BLD)

Lying on the Arabian Sea, the historic port of Muscat is the capital of Oman and the largest urban settlement in the country. Contrasting with the sleepy and sparsely inhabited deserts of Oman's interior, it is easily the Gulf's most attractive city. Muscat is an old walled town and is surrounded by a horseshoe ring of mountains that is a natural barrier to expansion of the city. The seaward face of Muscat is dominated by the Portuguese fortresses of Merani and Jalali which were built in 1587. This mix of ancient and modern is a constant theme of Muscat as we see houses, gates, old markets, small shops and small winding roads, side by side with modern markets, shops, buildings and streets with an eclectic mix of architecture. Oman thus preserves its historic character and at the same time enjoys a contemporary spirit. On arrival into Muscat we transfer to our hotel. After lunch we stroll along the waterfront of Mutrah, Muscat's oldest quarter, and into the labyrinthine passageways of the Mutrah souk, which has the best fish markets on the Gulf as well as a multitude of jewellery and craft stalls.

01/04/2027 Muscat (BLD)

After breakfast we visit the beautiful Sultan Qaboos Grand Mosque, which houses the second-largest carpet in the world. This hand-made marvel contains 1.7 billion knots, weighs 21 tonnes and took 400

Amman

03/04/2027 Amman (BLD)

Amman is a city straddling seven hills where modern buildings blend with the remnants of ancient civilisations. The mass of gleaming white houses, kebab stalls and tiny cafes where rich Arabian coffee is sipped, conjure up a mood straight out of 1001 Nights. This morning we take a city tour. After lunch we embark on an excursion to the ancient city of Jerash – a close second to Petra on the list of must-see destinations in Jordan. Conquered by General Pompey in 63 BC, it came under Roman rule and is now generally acknowledged to be one of the best-preserved Roman provincial towns in the world.

04/04/2027 Amman – Dead Sea (BLD)

After breakfast we head south to the Dead Sea. En-route we visit Madaba and Mt Nebo for stunning views across the sea to Israel. Continuing on our journey, we arrive at the Dead Sea. Described as the 'largest natural spa' in the world, the Dead Sea, at 400m below sea level, is the lowest point on earth. Possessing its own micro-climate, it contains more salt and minerals than any other sea in the world.

Old Village Petra Hotel

Petra

06/04/2027 Petra (BLD)

Hidden behind an almost impenetrable barrier of rugged mountains, the 2,000-year-old rock-carved city of Petra is full of mystery. The approach through the cool gloom of the Siq, a long narrow chasm, provides a dramatic contrast to the magic that follows. Suddenly the gorge opens into a natural square dominated by Petra's most famous monument, the Khasneh, with its unmistakable intricate facade. British explorer, Rose Macaulay, wrote in 1953: 'If ever a dead city held romance it is Petra ... hewn out of ruddy rock in the midst of a mountain wilderness ... this lost caravan city staggers even the most experienced traveller.'

07/04/2027 Petra – Wadi Rum (BLD)

After breakfast we drive south to the spectacular valley of Wadi Rum. This is a magnificent desert with uniquely shaped mountains rising out of the rose-red sand. We enjoy a camel ride before sharing lunch with the desert-dwelling Bedouins. Our home for the night is a luxury tented camp nestled amongst the red rocks and sands of the desert.
